About the new HSK 3.0

In July 2021, Hanban published the new vocabulary lists of the new HSK 3.0 standards which include significant changes.

The new HSK standards divide Chinese proficiency into 9 levels, which are themselves divided into 3 stages.

The current HSK 2.0 system will not change immediately. The test format, content, and vocabulary will remain unchanged for the 6 levels of the current HSK. But the reform will be carried out gradually from July 1 2021 during the next 3 to 5 years.

The transition from HSK v2.0 to v3.0 represents a significant change in the approach to learning the Chinese language.

Therefore, from Chinesimple by Khanji School, we offer you a complete HSK 3.0 list to download in PDF format comfortably.
